STARTING UP

Control Stick Function

The Nintendo 64 Control Stick uses an analog system to read the angles and directions of its movement. This allows subtle control that is not possible using the conventional + Control Pad.

When turning the Control Deck power ON, do not move the Control Stick from its neutral position on the controller.

If the Control Stick is held at an angled position (as shown in the picture on the left) when the power is turned ON, this position will be set as neutral. This will cause games using the Control Stick to operate incorrectly.

To reset the neutral position once the game has started, let go of the Control Stick so it can return to its center position (as shown in the picture on the left) then press START while holding the L and R Buttons.

The Control Stick is a precision instrument – make sure not to spill liquids or place any foreign objects into it. If you need assistance, contact a Nintendo Authorized Repair Center.

Holding the Nintendo® 64 Controller

While playing the Vigilante 8 game, we recommend you use the hand positions shown at left. By holding the controller like this, you can operate the Control Stick freely with your left thumb. Using your right thumb, you can easily access the A, B or C Buttons. Place your left index finger on the Z Button on the back of the controller.

Connecting the Nintendo® 64 Controller

To play Vigilante 8, connect a controller to socket one located on the front panel of the control deck.

If you change the connection during the game, you will need to turn the power OFF to make the connection active.

Rumble Pak™/Controller Pak

The Vigilante 8 game is compatible with the Rumble Pak accessory. Before using it, read the Rumble Pak accessory instruction booklet carefully.

The Controller Pak gives the player the option to save a game at the end of each level. You can swap the Rumble Pak and Controller Pak during the game, while on the pause screen. Press Start to pause the game.

N64 Expansion Pak

This game is compatible with the N64 Expansion Pak. Before using the N64 Expansion Pak, please read the N64 Expansion Pak Instruction Booklet carefully as it contains important information about the safety and use of this accessory. Press Start to pause the game and access the resolution options.

MAIN MENU

One Player

Choosing One Player allows you to choose between Quest, Arcade or Survival Mode.

Quest Mode

Quest mode consists of a series of four levels for each character. To win each level, you must complete the mission objectives and destroy all enemy vehicles. Enemy vehicles are automatically chosen and their number and skill increases with each level successfully passed.

After choosing the Quest mode you must select your vehicle. Use the Control Stick to cycle through the vehicles. After all four levels are completed, the ultimate fate of your character will be revealed. In addition, successfully completing all objectives will lead to "unlocking" additional characters/vehicles and arenas! If you fail to fulfill the mission objective in a Quest Mode, you can replay that level.

Arcade Mode

In Arcade mode, you must select an arena, a vehicle, and opponents. (You may select up to 12 enemy vehicles per arena.) Use the Control Stick to select the opposing vehicles and the number of times each can regenerate. Once you have chosen your opponent(s), press the A button to start the match.

Survival

In Survival mode, you must select an arena and a vehicle. The object of the survival mode is to see how many enemies you can destroy before you are eliminated. Caliber: 5.56 mm

Fire rate: 720 rounds/min

Interceptor Missiles

Homing missile developed at Site-4. This experimental weapon uses a combination of optical and heat-seeking tracking systems. While quite agile, its tracking accuracy is dependent upon target size.

Speed: 100 mph max.

Range: 1200 ft

Secret Move #1: Halo Decoy

CLASSIFIED

Secret Move #2: Afterburner

Fires one missile without detaching it, resulting in a brief burst of speed.

Button Seq: Up-Up-Up-Fire Machine Gun Cost: 2 Missiles

This "homemade" rocket is quite powerful, but has limited range and no tracking ability.

Speed: 120 mph sustained Range: 650 ft

Emulation64.fr

Sky Hammer Mortar

This fire-and-forget weapon was extremely hush-hush, until Sid broke into Site-4 and stole it. Adapted from a recovered UFO, the Sky Hammer fires an explosive charge of semi-intelligent alien matter. The blob is initially fired up to 200 feet into the air, then proceeds to fall down under gravity, tracking its target. While not extremely agile, it is able to adjust the trajectory by altering its organic shape in flight.

Caliber: N/A Range: 1000 ft

Secret Move #1: Turtle Turnover

CLASSIFIED

Secret Move #2: Crater Maker

Combines up to five shells into one powerful super-shot, often making a small crater when detonating over bare terrain.

Button Seq: Down-Down-Up-Fire Machine Gun Cost: 2 to 5 Shells

Bruiser Cannon

As the world's smallest artillery cannon, the Bruiser packs quite a punch. Unfortunately, its 360° auto-tracking turret is rather slow, thus not very effective while on the move.

Caliber: 60mm Range: 850 ft

Secret Move #1: Cow Puncher

CLASSIFIED

Secret Move #2: Buckshot

Fires up to six shells simultaneously. Great finishing move!

Button Seq: Down-Up-Up-Fire Machine Gun Cost: 2 to 6 Shells

Mine retrofitted with a gravitational force-field device. The Bear Hug is activated automatically when a vehicle is detected in its vicinity, pulling it in. If trapped, the vehicle will be temporarily immobilized.

Button Seq: Left-Right-Down-Fire Machine Gun Cost: 2 Mines

In addition to the standard weapons, you will come across two different crates:

RULES OF ENGAGEMENT

Driving

- Not all vehicles have fast acceleration, but you can shift down a gear for faster takeoff by double-tapping the Gas button at lower speeds.
- At higher speeds, use Quick Turn by pressing B and turning with the control stick/control pad, to perform a quick 180 degree spin!
- If you carry some missiles, you can use the Afterburner secret move for the ultimate boost, to enhance your jumps, or to get out of tight spots.
- If your engine stalls, press and hold the Gas button until it starts up again. It's a matter of timing.
- Stuck upside-down? Tap the Control Stick repeatedly left or right to roll the vehicle back onto its wheels!

Weapons

- In addition to your machine gun, you can carry up to three weapons at a time. If you pick up more, your currently selected weapon will be discarded, so... plan ahead! Discarded standard weapons can be collected again... but you better be quick, before they disintegrate.
- Your weapons systems are prone to overheating, so their firing rates have been set for optimal performance at the factory. If you attempt to fire faster than allowed, you will hear a buzzer and the weapon won't fire. Likewise, if you keep firing your machine gun continuously, it will slow down to a crawl. So, learn the timing or give it a breather!

Targeting

- By default, your radar is set to auto-targeting mode—it will attempt to target the enemy directly ahead of you, regardless of its distance.
- You can override the selected target at any time by pressing the Select Target button, switching to the enemy closest to you. Pressing the button repeatedly allows you to cycle through all enemies. Once the override is engaged, it will remain locked onto its new target. When a new weapon is selected, or the selected enemy is destroyed, the radar will revert to auto-targeting mode.

Strategy

- While smaller vehicles are weaker, they are more difficult for the enemy to target. If you select a small car, just make sure to keep on moving. Also, do not try to ram vehicles larger than yours—stay out of their way!
- If you manage to hit your opponent with two (or more) different weapons simultaneously—it's a "WHAMMY"—you do more damage that way!
- By carefully choosing your attacks, you can bring your opponent to a "wrecked" state at near-zero health, stalling the vehicle for a few seconds before it explodes. This is your chance to "TOTAL" it with a secret move or a special weapon!

BACK STORY

It was the time of a worldwide oil shortage. The U.S.—heavily dependent on affordable gasoline—was on the verge of an economic breakdown. Strikes, riots, and crime were rampant. All available law enforcement was brought into metropolitan areas, leaving the outlands unprotected.

All this was music to the ears of the Oil Monopoly Alliance Regime (OMAR), a foreign multinational oil consortium bound on monopolizing the world oil trade. The U.S. was the last country opposing OMAR's price fixing schemes and the vicious conglomerate was prepared to go to great lengths to bring the U.S. to its knees.

Enter Sid Burn, the best professional terrorist money could buy. Sid was promised $100 million by OMAR if he managed to push the U.S. economy over the edge. Sid immediately began to organize his troops in remote areas of the southwest. Known as the "Coyotes," these motorized gangsters soon became synonymous with vandalism and chaos. They began to target oil refineries and other vital industrial and commercial installations throughout the region. Small towns and settlements were terrorized...

With no one to turn to for protection, some desperate civilians decided to take the law into their own hands. Led by a trucker named Convoy and referred to simply as "Vigilantes," this oddball group of volunteers soon became a major hindrance to Sid's plans.

In the meantime, the U.S. government, feeling more vulnerable than ever, was intensifying its research and development of a new military arsenal. The most advanced weaponry, rumored to be based on UFO technology, was located at Site-4, a secret facility at Papoose Lake, Nevada. This information was not lost on Sid. Hungry for more firepower, the Coyotes organized an ambush on the facility. The robbery went sour when the Vigilantes unexpectedly appeared at the scene. As a result, the world's most advanced weaponry found its way into the hands of both parties...

What followed were no ordinary skirmishes. Auto clashes ensued all over the land, from Colorado's Rockies to California's farmlands, only to culminate in a battle like no other. To this day the events which took place are only a matter of speculation...
